Flaws in joint vote law cited

A proposed consolidation-of-elections law (Senate Bill 1149), before Governor James R. Thompson ignores many details which could be "catastrophic," a Belleville Area College Board of Trustees member, Milton Smith, said at Thursday night's board meeting. The BAC district includes the Quad-Cities.

Board Member Robert Dintelman pointed out that, although the overall bill could have some good effects — the problems created for community colleges could be severe.

The Belleville Area College board authorized President William R. Keel to hand-carry a letter to Gov. Thompson, asserting that:

1. "No provisions are made for new terms of office. At present, community college trustees serve three-year terms and these would not fit into the scheme of elections every two years. The possibilities of four or six-year terms may cause otherwise qualified citizens not to run for office.

2. "Questions on tax rate increases and bond issues could only be presented to voters on the five dates prescribed in the consolidated elections schedule. If several governmental units would be successful in receiving approval at the same time, the bond market could be adversely affected. On the other hand, presentation of bond issues at the same election could result in negative votes for all referenda, not based on merit but rather on sheer numbers.

3. "No provisions are made for 'backdoor' referenda as outlined in the Public Community College Act.

4. "Precinct boundaries are often not co-terminous and with large numbers of governmental units involved, voters may be asked to appear at several different polling places in order to cast their ballots."

The letter concluded, "In summary, changes are needed and supported by this board, but we feel legislation must be more comprehensive in order to resolve problem areas.

"We, therefore, urge you to consider our request before you decide to sign this legislation."

Salary increases were approved for Belleville Area College administrators at Thursday night's board meeting.

The overall administrative package had been previously approved, providing administrators with the same raises given to the faculty under a new three-year contract. Those raises are, for 1977-78: 8.5, 8 per cent, 6 per cent and 6 per cent respectively.

A $4 million bond issue is available and the Building Committee has been studying various combinations of bids and alternates in an effort to provide as big a facility as possible.

Earlier bidding exceeded $6

CAN'T WAIT TO GET OLD. Gwen Harris of Granite City, a graduate student in both music and theater and dance at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, transforms herself from a comely lass into a little old man. Later, on the campus, the little old man tells a student he has gotten on the wrong bus and needs directions to SIU at Carbondale. As Charlie Chaplin, Miss Harris joins a student who is admiring the latest paint job on the campus rock.

Multiple personalities by GC actress

According to Gwen Harris of Granite City, there aren't too many cheap thrills anymore, so she makes her own adventures and leaves many happy people in her wake.

Miss Harris, who will be teaching makeup classes this fall as a graduate assistant at SIUE, says it is more than just a hobby when she gets dressed up as a little old man, Charlie Chaplin, Quasimodo, Little Bo-Peep or Chiquita Coochee-Coochee (a cross between Chacho and Chiquita Banana).

"It's fun to be someone else. A lot of people dream of being someone else even if it is just for a moment," she said. "I can live that dream."

Miss Harris has received all sorts of reactions from her often startled audiences. She even has a fan club in the Data Processing and Computing Center of SIUE.

"I get a lot of encouragement," Miss Harris said. "This is theater that really reaches an audience."

"An audience has a hard time reaching across the orchestra pit to the stage during plays," she explained, "but this way, I go out and reach the people."

Solution on jail near

(39th of a series on politics in Madison County)

One of the thorniest political and governmental problems in Madison County—condition associated with a too-small county jail—that is more than a century old—may be well on the road to a solution Wednesday.

The Madison County Board will consider a resolution that may recommend action on bids for a 76-cell or a 106-cell jail at a potential cost of $3,600,000 to $4,200,000.

A $4 million bond issue is available and the Building Committee has been studying various combinations of bids and alternates in an effort to provide as big a facility as possible.

Earlier bidding exceeded $6 million, attributed to differing standards required by state and federal authorities. Possible federal monetary help did not materialize.

One possibility is that successful bidders may be asked to start work on a basic jail building and hold their prices on a possible addition until Dec. 6. In the meantime, the committee would review other fund sources.

The possibility of meeting with low bidders to discuss how costs might be trimmed also was mentioned at a committee meeting last week.

Architect Henry Gabriel of Granite City is the jail designer. Shared federal revenue may be used to add to the available funds, committee members said. S. M. Wilson & Co., Granite City, is low bidder on the basic jail construction.

In other business, the County Board is to consider allocating $53,269 in anti-recession fiscal assistance funds for salaries in the sheriff's department, and is to act on bids for repair and maintenance of sheriff's department vehicles.

Resolutions authorizing an application to the Illinois Law Enforcement Commission for a grant to continue the Public Defender Upgrade project, and authorizing the county superintendent of highways on several bridge projects also are to be considered.

The board is to study a contract with the Madison County

Urban League, authorize the exchange of property on Fifth Avenue between Calvary Southern Baptist Church and the county, and recess the meeting until Nov. 16 to consider the annual budget.

The board will meet at 9:30 a.m. Wednesday in the board room in the basement of the County Courthouse at Edwardsville.

FIND CAR IN WATER

Venice police are attempting to determine the owner of an auto found half in the Mississippi River near the Venice boat dock at 9 a.m. Friday. The 1967 Pontiac GTO two-door has no license plates and has not been reported stolen, according to the vehicle's identification number.

City bond issue for new plant

A memorandum of intent under which Granite City would issue $800,000 in industrial revenue bonds to finance construction of a new manufacturing plant here will be presented to the City Council in its regular meeting Tuesday night.

Mayor Paul Schuler said the proposal calls for construction of a steel processing plant by the Feralloy Corp. of Chicago.

Mayor Schuler said the company expects to locate the plant on a tract of land southwest of the intersection of 25th Street and the railroad tracks.

Schuler said the documents to be presented to the council Tuesday night are necessary to negotiations by attorneys for the Feralloy Corp. with the Continental Illinois National Bank and Trust Co. of Chicago which has agreed to buy the revenue bonds.

If the memorandum of intent is approved, the council also will be asked to approve a resolution authorizing the city to execute the memorandum and proceed with sale of the bonds, the mayor said.

Under the proposed agreement, the $800,000 in bond proceeds would be used to "acquire certain land and improve the said land with a building or buildings, and to furnish the land and buildings with equipment suitable for use by the company."

The agreement asserts that the Feralloy Co., after considering a number of possible locations within and outside the state of Illinois, and in reliance upon Granite City's offer to finance the acquisition, improvement and equipping of the plant, "has determined to locate the project within the territorial boundaries of Granite City."

Upon issuance of the bonds, the company and city will enter into an agreement of a loan arrangement, lease or other procedure "which will provide for payments by the company

500 honor McPike

Cong. Paul Simon told 500 State Rep. Jim McPike well-wishers Saturday night at SIUE that he had been asked by U.S. Sen. Dick Clark to fill for a cancer-hobbled Sen. Hubert Humphrey at a dinner for Clark the same night, but kept his date in Illinois for the $15-a-plate fund-raising dinner.

Simon urged government intervention, such as through WPA and CCC programs, to "solve unemployment."

"We're going to pay people either to be productive or unproductive. Productivity makes infinitely more sense," he said.

He voiced sorrow for his minimum wage bill which drew a tie vote and was decided negatively by the House Speaker's tie-breaker. It would have permitted employment of youths aged 18 or under at 85 per cent of the minimum wage for six months.

"When the minimum wage goes up, youth employment goes up," Simon said. "When $2.65 an hour passes, youth unemployment will go up five or six per cent, and more in the inner city. We can't have massive unemployment and expect a healthy society."

County Clerk Evelyn Bowles, billed as a speaker, was absent due to the illness of former County Clerk Eulalia Hoyt, who underwent an operation at Alton Memorial Hospital Sept. 9.

Simon commented there usually are two sides — "no, ten sides" — to Democratic politics in Madison County. He noted that County Board chairman Nelson Hagnauer was not present, alluding to him as "my friend."

At the head table were McPike's legislative teammates, Senator Sam Vadalabene and Rep. Joe Luocco of Edwardsville.

Rep. Harold Byers of Highland, generally regarded as the most powerful member of the division of the party in Madison County, was introduced and substituted for Miss Bowles at the microphones at the dinner.

Senator Vince Demulio of Carlinville was the other speaker.

County Board Member Daniel Partney of Granite City was master of ceremonies.

At the head table were William M. Ebersold, mayor of Venice; Don Garrett, 31st Ward Alderman, Madison; Jean O'Neill, Alton, alderman and treasurer; Citizens for McPike; Bob Means of the Granite City Subdistrict, United Steelworkers; Shirley Stoll of the Granite City Federation of Teachers; Ken Hagen, Alton Education Association President; Charles Moore, Lodge 660, Machinists; Carol Kops, chairman of the Committee on Political Education and president of the Granite City Democratic Club; Jim Grandone, SIU board; and the Rev. Greg Ingram.

A printed dinner program carried 152 advertisements, including 17 from bans and one full page from the Association for Modern Banking in Illinois, which seeks branch banking.

The occasion gave Partney a chance to praise McPike's record and background. The state representative is a Naval Academy graduate with a bachelor degree from the University of Florida at Jacksonville and a master degree in economics from SIUE. He was a jet pilot for five years.

His wife, Carol, was praised by McPike as an active member of the "legislative team."

County grant is approved

The grant will provide full funding for the work which was designed last August after it was learned the county was eligible to apply for the grant through the Economic Development Administration.

Hagnauer said bid specifications will now be prepared and presented to the County Board for a bid call.

PREPARING FOR LEWIS-CLARK TREK. Scouts and hikers line up on the Chain of Rocks Canal levee Saturday in preparation for their annual pilgrimage to the Lewis and Clark State Park. The round-trip hike of six and a half miles started from the ship-to-

Veterans' questions answered

Following are representative questions answered daily by counselors of the Veterans Administration. Full information is available at any VA office.

Q—My only income is $750 a month compensation from the VA. I am rated 100 per cent disabled. My wife has been placed in a nursing home and I am having financial problems. Can I receive more assistance from the VA?

A—Since Oct. 1, 1976, veterans with service-connected disabilities rated 50 per cent or more are eligible for an increased allowance if their spouse is in need of aid and attendance. For a veteran rated 100 per cent disabled that amount is $78 per month instead of the $43 monthly allowance for a spouse. These amounts are proportionally reduced for veterans less than 100 per cent disabled.

Q—Please define what a deficiency course is under the educational benefits of the GI Bill?

A—Any secondary-level course or subject not previously completed satisfactorily and which is specifically required for pursuit of a post-secondary program of education.

Q—What is the coverage under the Civilian Health and Medical Program of VA (CHAMPVA) for inpatient care?

A—CHAMPVA will pay 75 per cent of the allowable charges of the hospital and professional personnel.

Q—I have a $10,000 National Service Life Insurance policy. I would like to know if I can change my beneficiary designation through my last will and testament?

A—No. Your request for a change in beneficiary should be sent to the VA insurance center where your premiums are paid.

Q—I was receiving educational assistance under the GI Bill last semester. I terminated school attendance in the middle of the term and received two checks to which I was not entitled. I have been receiving notices to repay this debt. Since I plan to resume training sometime in the future, can I defer payment until then?

A—No. The indebtedness will have to be liquidated. Please contact the Veterans Administration Center, Federal Building, Fort Snelling, St. Paul, Minn. 55111, ATTN: Centralized Accounts Receivable Section, to arrange for repayment.

Q—I am a widow receiving Dependency and Indemnity Compensation. If I become employed, will this employment have any effect on my DIC? Also, does my late husband's estate affect my benefits?

A—No. Income and corpus of the estate are not factors in determining a widow's qualification for DIC.

Q—I have been overpaid approximately $300 in educational benefits. Can I repay the overpayment by having it withheld from my compensation?

A—Yes. The overpayment should be paid over a period not to exceed one year.

Q—My husband died recently and I was designated as principal beneficiary on his NSLI insurance policy. He specified that I should receive the money in 36 monthly installments. May I elect to have the proceeds paid to me in a lump sum?

A—No. Unless the insured specified that payment be made in a lump sum you may not receive the proceeds in that manner.

Q—How soon after military

Fifth season for Peppermint Players

With school now in its new term, the Granite City High School North Peppermint Players are preparing to tour four elementary schools, Parkview, Lake, Maryville and Mitchell, on Thursday, Sept. 29, to start the group's fifth season.

Dr. Goni Michaeloff, chairman of the North Speech Department, started the Peppermint Players in the fall of 1973 when North High School opened.

The purpose of the group is to offer beginning advanced speech students an opportunity to present live theater performances to child audiences, thus introducing both high school and elementary students to worthwhile children's literature.

Students in advanced speech I classes design their own costumes which are made by their parents specially for use in the program.

Portable scenery used in the programs is designed by Dr. Michaeloff and specially made pieces are constructed by the students. Roger Waldrup, wood instructor, builds basic units.

This season the program will be a 25-minute dramatization of the classic tale "Peter Rabbit."

Cast of characters includes: Tammy Payne as Mrs. Rabbit, Bob Slate as Peter, Lisa Thompson as Flopsy, Pamela Tester as Mopsy, Sue Basarich as Cottontail, Monty Naler as Benjie, Barry Reiter as Cando, Tim Tingley as Nukkin, Don Jones as Coker, Marvin Haberlein as Foker, Bill Broadwater as Jaker, Bill Foley as Mr. McGregor, Dawn Stoyanoff as Mrs. McGregor, Lida Salem as Lucie and Carol Hunt as stage manager.

The play takes place during a summer day in the country, sometimes at the Rabbit's house and sometimes in Mr. McGregor's garden.

Leaders of the troupe are the Peppermint Girls: Dawn Stoyanoff and the four "Peppies," Laurie McKinney, Sue Basarich, Pamela Tester and Lisa Salem who will introduce the players and the play to the audiences.

Songs and music used for all Peppermint Players programs are by Mrs. Pat Michaeloff, vocal music specialist.

Hearings on state mandated programs

Lt. Gov. Dave O'Neal is urging all representatives of education in Southern Illinois to testify at either of two public hearings tonight or tomorrow before the education subcommittee of the Governor's Commission on State Mandated Programs.

O'Neal, chairman of the commission, said, "Education officials in the counties of Madison, Bond, Fayette, Effingham, Jasper and Crawford and 28 counties south of these counties, as well as members of the general public in this area, will have two opportunities to present oral and written testimony concerning programs which the state has ordered educational units to conduct."

The hearings will be held in the Marion Senior High School from 4 to 7 tonight and in the Belleville Area College Theater from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. Tuesday. Governor James R. Thompson in his "state of the state" message in March announced formation of the commission. "In this year of fiscal restraint," Thompson said, "it falls squarely on the state government's shoulders to isolate which of the programs it requires of local governments are vital and which are not. We must not continue to place undue burdens on local governments, if the burden is unwarranted.

"It will be the assigned task of the commission to ferret out programs that are excess baggage and start the ball rolling to end them."

Thompson has asked the commission to report back to him and to the general assembly by Oct. 31 with its preliminary findings and recommendations.

Members of the education subcommittee are James Nowlan, chairman, special assistant to the governor on education, Senators Arthur L. Berman, D-Chicago, Prescott P. Bloom, R-Peoria, Kenneth V. Burbee, D-Carbondale, and Jack Schaffer, R-Crystal Lake.

Also, State Representatives Betty J. Hoxsey, R-Ottawa, and Douglas N. Kane, D-Springfield; and public members Sandra Absher of Marion, a teacher, Martin Geraghty of Chicago, assistant vice-president of Draper and Kramer, Inc., Mary Margaret Langdon of Chicago, vice-president of the National Association of Boards of Education, L. Milton McClure of Beardstown, a partner in the law firm of McClure, McClure and Brannan, and Shirley Rauschenberger, editor of the Elgin Herald.

A total attendance of 2,600 is anticipated, counting wives of the members, distinguished Masonic guests from other sections of the United States, Canada, Europe, Latin America and the 211 members of the Masonic Fraternity who will receive the 33rd degree on Wednesday evening, Sept. 28. Hearing on day care, counseling and transit

Members of the Title XX Citizens' Advisory Council will hold a public hearing on social service programs Tuesday. Southern Illinois residents are being encouraged to attend the hearing at the Fairview Heights Ramada Inn, 6900 Illinois Ave. (junction of I-64 and Rt. 159) from 9 a.m. until 4 p.m.

Public input gained from this session will be used by allied agencies in the development of 1978-79 fiscal year budgets and the Comprehensive Annual Services Plan (CASP). Title XX, the newest program of the Social Security Act, provides federal funds to aid states in the operation of such social service needs as day care, family planning, counseling and transportation. Among the issues scheduled for discussion at the hearing are service gaps, funding problems, staff training and interagency planning. However, the discussion will not be limited to these issues and there will be time allotted for public comment on existing programs. Persons wishing to testify may register at the entrance to the hearing room. Prepared statements for improving or amending programs will be accepted.

Handicapped children to have own stand at parade

The Easter Seal Society of Southwestern Illinois and the Variety Club of St. Louis will co-sponsor a special reviewing stand for handicapped children and their families to view the annual Veiled Prophet Parade in St. Louis on Saturday, Sept. 24 at 10:15 a.m.

Additional testimony will be heard in Chicago on Friday at the University of Illinois Circle Campus (701 S. Halsted) in Springfield on Tuesday, Sept. 27, at the Department of Transportation Building (1200 Dirksen Parkway); in Rock Island Oct. 5 at the County Building (1504 Third Ave.); and Oct. 13 again at the Circle Campus location in Chicago.

The reviewing area for this year's "The Veiled Prophet — 100 Years in St. Louis" parade will be at Alo Plaza directly across from Union Station on Market Street in St. Louis.

Arrangements are being made for more than 1,000 handicapped children to view the parade in bleachers and special platforms for those children confined to wheelchairs. All physically handicapped (speech, hearing, orthopedic) and educable mentally handicapped children up to 18 years old and their families are invited to attend.

The Veiled Prophet organization has formed a special committee to handle all of the details so the handicapped children will have a wonderful experience, a spokesman said. Special guests will be at the parade site to entertain the children. Parade participants have been alerted to pay particular attention to this reviewing area.

Volunteer nurses, teenagers and representatives of the Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts will be available to assist and entertain the children. A limited supply of wheelchairs will be on hand for use at the parade site. Small gifts and refreshments will be passed out to the children.

Chartered bus transportation will be provided to and from the parade site from the following locations:

Edwardsville (Route 157 and 270). The buses will leave the pick-up points at 8:30 a.m. and return there immediately following the parade at approximately 12:30 p.m.

Officials said reservations are necessary to plan adequately for the comfort and well-being of all of the children in attendance. Additional information and reservations may be obtained from the Easter Seal Society by calling 462-8897.

Park Service exhibits to be on public view

One of a series of traveling exhibits produced by the National Park Service for the U.S. Bicentennial will be available for public viewing in the rotunda of the Old Courthouse from Oct. 2 to Oct. 23.

Entitled "Student Artists paint the Bicentennial," the 18 paintings can be identified with persons, places, or event important to the American Revolution.

During 1974, the National Park Service, in cooperation with the New York Society of Illustrators, held a nationwide student art contest. Using our Nation's 200th birthday as the theme, art students throughout the United States submitted paintings to be judged.

The 18 works in this exhibit were among the winners selected by a panel of professional artists. They represent a variety of techniques and media.

South loses first, 2-1

By ELDON WARFIELD
for the Press-Record

Despite outplaying the Vianney Griffins, the soccer Warriors fell short of victory Saturday night, 2-1 in the semifinals of the Catholic Athletic Conference Tournament at Vianney High School.

South appeared to have a letdown early in the game and before the Warriors fired up their kickers they trailed, 2-0.

The letdown not only cost the Warriors the game but two streaks were broken. Prior to the contest, South had won 29 games in a row and its last nine wins had been shutouts.

David Fernandez, Joe Theis and Mark Goldschmidt made some of Vianney's players look like they had never played soccer before, as the skilled kickers dribbled and passed as if there weren't any defense in sight.

Defenders were searching all over the field for the ball when Fernandez brought it up the side of the field.

Theis had opponents turning in circles and chasing after perfect passes made by the little playmaker. Vianney's players thought twice about getting in front of Goldschmidt's shoes.

One defender was shaken up when a Goldschmidt boot caught him in the face. John Kresovich propelled forth an outstanding defensive effort, breaking up plays and intercepting passes.

A loose ball in front of the Warrior goal was slapped to the left of goalie Barry Briggs and into the net at 4:36 in the first half by Tony Vallenta of Vianney.

Then at 16:00 in the first half, in an effort to pass the ball to Briggs, Jack Burnett of South squeaked one into his own goal. The goal was credited to Dan Meagher of the Griffins.

A flurry of opportunities then flashed in front of the Warriors. Chris Oswald, the Griffin goalie, nabbed a head shot from Greg Feigl. He kept the pressure on, contributing to a mass of shots-on-goal and wide efforts.

Late in the first half South dominated the flow of action. A throw-in by Gary Phelps late in the period led to a head pass from Feigl to Joe Theis, who blasted a shot wide.

A two-kick penalty turned into a disputed judgment call by the referee. Mark Goldschmidt placed an angle shot high into the right corner of the Vianney goal. The official ruled the goalie did not touch the ball, so Vianney was awarded a fullback kick. Pressure was applied throughout the entire second half by the Warriors.

Although the whistles of the referees broke the action and the second half was full of Vianney injuries, the kickers kept a constant attack at the Griffins.

Not all of South's shots missed the net. At 15:23 in the second half, a Vianney defender knocked David Fernandez down in an attempt to shoot at the opposition's goal. Granite City was then awarded a penalty kick and Mark Goldschmidt whiffed a shot right past the opposing goalie, making the score 2-1.

Both teams had to overcome not knowing how much time remained in the game because the time kept on the field was unofficial.

This created a problem at the end of the game. When time had expired, the game was still being played. The players only thought the game was ALMOST over.

The Warriors, now 7-1, will challenge St. Thomas Aquinas this Thursday at 4:30 on South's field. The Warriors will attempt to avenge their only loss from last season, 2-1 to Aquinas.

2 meetings on mine subsidence

Senator Sam M. Vadalabene's office has announced a public meeting of the Mine Subsidence Subcommittee in the Maryville City Hall at 10 a.m. Wednesday.

The subcommittee, chaired by Sen. Guidice (D-Chicago), will be studying mine subsidence legislation and, in this regard, will visit affected areas in order to better understand the problem.

Ronald P. Lucas, mayor of Maryville, has asked that concerned citizens attend the meeting so that their views and questions can be directly considered by the delegation.

The format will be informal and the committee will review any and all related topics. After the meeting, the senators plan to take an inspection tour of affected areas.

There will be a similar meeting in the City Hall at Belleville Thursday at 10 a.m.

News notes

The Senate voted 97-7 Thursday to suspend for 18 months a proposed ban on saccharin. It declined to order cancer warnings on products made with the artificial sweetener.

Governor James R. Thompson said Friday public election campaign financing would aid incumbent officials and could harm the political system due to the potential for abuse.

Four counties remain in the running for two proposed new state prisons. Lawrence and Pope are offering free sites of 120 and 118 acres, while St. Clair proposes 68 free acres and 42 acres to be purchased by the state. Montgomery County offers 100 acres for $203,700.

River stages at St. Louis of about 20 feet are expected to drop to six feet by Saturday.

Appointment of Jane Altes as assistant vice-president for academic programs at SIUE was reported Friday by Earl Lazarson, vice-president and provost.

To apply for retroactive cash benefits under the state's "circuit breaker" program, senior citizens and disabled persons must file by Dec. 31. The tax relief aids low-income persons with high rents or taxes.

The Southwestern Illinois Law Enforcement Commission board will consider a Madison County public defender "Upgrade II" federal grant application at its monthly meeting in Nub's Steak House, Route Two, Pocaahontas, at 5 p.m. Wednesday.

Citing government interference, foreign imports and environmental standards, Youngstown Sheet & Tube Co. today said it will close its Campbell, Ohio, plant and lay off 5,000 workers who produce hot rolled sheets and plates and cold rolled sheets.

Maybe you don't make a $3,000 loan every day, but we do.

Actually, that's just a middle-size loan for us these days. We make some for less. And a lot for a lot more.

So we're not a "small-loan" company, but a large loan center. And a good one.

Homeowner loans, too.

When you're after really large amounts, the equity in your home is a valuable asset. You can use that equity to back very sizable loans from us. And that's nice to know.

Next time you want money, whatever the reason, think of us. If you're more comfortable feeling you can depend on us for small loans, we really don't mind. Because you can.

But remember, we mostly think big.

Witnesses

To testify before the Springfield grand jury Thursday, but had the appearance delayed since he was involved in helping the city defend a lawsuit in the Madison County Circuit Court at Edwardsville all last week. That lawsuit stems from a 1972 auto accident in 1972 and is unrelated to the grand jury probe.

Portell said he has not been notified of a new date to appear before the grand jury.

Based upon belief that about 15 persons had been slated to appear before the grand jury Friday, there was widespread interest here regarding activities at the federal building.

The grand jury meets on the third floor of the post office at Sixth and Monroe streets, Springfield, on a floor also occupied by Fines and the U.S. marshal, a federal judge, a courtroom and other federal offices.

Fines, contacted personally at 9 a.m. Friday, said he could not attend an attorney's conference and could not even say if there was an investigation related to Madison County.

He requested cooperation in moving from his office, since the waiting room adjoined a witness room where grand jury witnesses may be sequestered.

"We do not want to interfere with your constitutional rights to be on any property, but we are afraid some of the witnesses may see a newspaper reporter and it would impede their testimony," Fines said.

He requested a conference room in the hallway between Fines' office and the grand jury chambers at the other end of the third floor, it was difficult to distinguish some of those being taken to the jury chambers from those working in other offices in the building.

Attempts to remain in the same hallway as the grand jury entrance were resisted by the grand jury bailiff, who requested anyone "keep moving" unless they had business related to the grand jury.

Seen near the grand jury chambers and talking to Fines Friday was Madison Alderman Ron Grzywacz.

Several witnesses also were taken toward the grand jury chambers by Fines, including two who seemed to be representatives of the Attorney General's office.

William Brandt of Granite City, Brandt visited outside the grand jury chambers during their testimony.

It would have been possible to take witnesses down one elevator, across the first or second floors and up another elevator to the grand jury chambers without being seen by anyone, he said.

In all, five persons who were seen going to the grand jury chambers appeared to be witnesses.

The grand jury adjourned at 2:30 p.m. Friday, after about four hours of testimony and a luncheon break.

Fines said there had been no formal report from the jury in the morning or Friday's deliberations.

The dinner was served by the following members of James Stuart Chapter, Order of the Moose: Kelly Smith, Dennis Worthen, Kirk Pullio, Brad Lane, Bryan Johnson, Steve Miller, Dave Utley and Joe Johnston.

New state jobs

Governor James R. Thompson announced Thursday that Electro Minerals, Inc., will locate a plant on a 100-acre site near Hennepin in Putnam County.

The company is a division of Electrochemicals, Kenosha, Wis., a subsidiary of GMBH of West Germany. Construction is scheduled to begin this fall, with operations to begin in 1978.

The plant will initially employ 100 and will produce 25,000 tons annually of silicon carbide.

The governor last week announced the award of seven federal grants for the creation of 473 public service jobs in seven state agencies.

The U.S. Department of Labor grants were awarded under the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act (CETA).

Thompson said that, to date, 310 jobs and economically disadvantaged persons have been hired under CETA programs. This number includes 129 veterans.

In other state developments, Illinois Attorney General William J. Scott last week warned consumers that unless they specify their desire for a spare tire when purchasing a new automobile, they may find their car equipped with a "space saver" emergency tire.

Miller has served in various capacities for United Way campaigns in recent years.

Miller is a native of Gary, Ind., and came to Granite City Steel from Great Lakes Steel in 1972.

He is married and he and his wife, Bette, have three children, Karen, Karla and David.

Agriculture John Block, in Western Europe to investigate the possibility of expanding markets for Illinois agricultural products, reports there is a strong demand in Germany for corn-fed beef. "However," he said, "extremely stringent sanitary requirements keep all but a very few U.S. packing plants out of this market."

Corn sells for $5 a bushel in Germany, making it seem that selling Illinois' $1.50 per bushel corn in Germany would be an easy task. But a common market floating levy policy requires that U.S. corn is always equal or more expensive than German corn, he said; this makes it difficult to get U.S. grain into the market.

A dramatic improvement in the quality of Illinois waters over the past three years is being claimed, indicating compliance by dischargers with state regulations is starting to benefit fishermen. The frequencies of lead pollution, dissolved oxygen pollution and human and animal waste contamination have decreased sharply.

The Illinois Environmental Protection Agency maintains a water quality stream network of 1,550 stations, exclusive of Lake Michigan.

JOINT FUNERAL SERVICES were held at 1 p.m. today at a Madison funeral home for Tonya Levart, 15, and her brother, Johnnie, 11, who died in an early morning fire Thursday. Both youngsters died in the fire that swept their home at 2001 Harris St., Madison. Burial was in St. John Cemetery.

Fund to aid family whose 2 children died in fire

A fund to aid the family of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Levart whose two children, Tonya, 15, and Johnnie, 11, died in a fire that gutted the family home at 2001 Harris St., Madison, last week, has been established at the First National Bank in Madison.

The family lost all of its clothing and furnishings in the fire which occurred about 3:30 p.m. Thursday. The Madison Levarts suffered burns and cuts and another daughter, Patricia, 11, escaped the flames through a window in a bedroom where her sister, Tonya, died of apparent suffocation.

John Belloff, assistant vice-president at the Madison bank, said Mrs. Mary Butler, a neighbor of the Levart family, will serve as trustee of the fund.

Cash contributions may be made to the bank, either in person or by mail, Belloff said. He said the effort to assist the family is being supported by Mayor Mike Sasyk and other city officials.

Persons wishing to contribute clothing or household furnishings may do so at the Madison Police Station, Madison Chief of Police Don Erickson said.

Venice hearing on technical education

The State Advisory Council on Adult, Vocational and Technical Education will hold a public hearing on Monday, Oct. 3, from 2 to 5 p.m., in Venice at the Venice Recreation Center, 323 Broadway.

The Council was established by 1968 amendments to the Vocational Education Act and is composed of business and labor representatives, educational administrators, teachers, guidance counselors, state agency representatives, students, school board members and the general public.

Most of the members are non-educators. Five Advisory Council members are from the area served by this hearing: James H. Adams, Godfrey; Mrs. Marjorie McCray, Belleville; Mrs. Glenita Pensoneau, Fairview Heights; Duane Rankin, Venice, and Edward B. Sprinkle, East St. Louis.

Purpose of the public hearing is to allow individuals and groups the opportunity to express their beliefs about the planning for and delivery of adult, vocational and technical education.

The Council is interested in knowing about problems and failures as well as positive aspects of such programs. Adult, vocational and technical education programs are offered by public elementary and secondary schools, adult vocational centers, community colleges and state universities. Throughout Illinois, over $63 million in state and Federal funds were distributed to schools.

Persons testifying are to restrict their remarks to 15 minutes, and the Council would like ten copies of the testimony made available to members. Persons testifying will be making their remarks to the Council, and there will be no questions from the audience asked of the presenters. Anyone wishing to testify is to contact William E. Nagel, executive director, State Advisory Council on Adult, Vocational and Technical Education, 575 Lincoln Tower Plaza, 284 S. 2nd St., Springfield 62706 (phone 217-782-2892).

Arrangements for the hearing were made possible by the City of Venice and Rankin. It will be the fourth hearing held in the fall of 1977. Other public hearings scheduled by the Council are at Marion, Oct. 17 and Mattoon, Oct. 24.

Madison school levy not to affect rate

A tax levy of $700,897, down $66,153 from last year's extension, was approved by the Madison Board of Education Thursday night following a public hearing on the budget and levy bills.

The board approved a budget of $4,240,312 which was unchanged from the tentative appropriation bill posted a month ago. The new budget is $301,946 higher than the 1976-77 appropriation approved a year ago.

The new tax levy, the amount needed to be raised by taxation to make up the difference between budgeted expenditures and the amount of other school district revenue, is not expected to result in any change in the tax rate if property valuations remain near their present level, according to School Superintendent John Palchek.

Madison School District residents paid taxes this year on a rate of $3.11 per $100 assessed valuation.

The new tax levies by funds, with last year's figures in parentheses, include:

Educational fund—$376,000 ($424,000); building—$88,125 ($89,375); bond and interest—$127,511 ($131,175); transportation—$28,200 ($31,800); municipal retirement—$84,999 ($72,875); special education facilities—$9,400 ($10,600); fire and safety—$11,750 ($13,250); liability—$4,911 ($3,975).

In approving the 1977-78 school budget, the board authorized expenditures of $3,283,562 in the educational fund and $554,500 in the building fund.

Other budget projections include $206,500 in the bond and interest fund, $110,750 in the transportation fund and $65,000 in the municipal retirement fund.

The educational fund budget of $3,283,562 is up from last year's budget of $3,165,801 and the building fund budget of $554,500 is up from last year's appropriation of $386,500.

Question youth in three truck thefts, two chases

Granite City police are holding a 20-year-old Granite City youth for investigation of possible involvement in the thefts of three pickup trucks during the weekend and two chases in which youths in stolen vehicles escaped from police.

Officers first saw a pickup truck at 1:50 a.m. Saturday go through the stop sign at 28rd Street and Grand Avenue without stopping and followed the truck, which stopped at 23rd Street and Madison Avenue and then turned left on Madison Avenue.

Police chased the truck, using red lights and a siren north to 25th Street; west on 25th through stop signs at Grand Avenue and State Street, left on Delmar Avenue and south at a high rate of speed to 23rd Street where another stop sign was violated.

The driver of the truck lost control when turning right at 23rd Street and Delmar Avenue and the truck went over the sidewalk before coming to a stop.

Two youths leaped from the truck and ran north through the yard at 2255 Delmar Ave. Lt. Albert Diak fired one warning shot, but the youths did not stop. Police said a gallon bucket partially filled with gasoline was in the cab and a four-foot length of garden hose was in the bed of the truck, indicating gasoline had been siphoned from another vehicle.

The truck was found to have been stolen after 10:30 p.m. Friday from the home of Lawrence Ritchie, 2324 Cleveland Blvd. Ritchie told officers asked him where it was. Police said a gallon bucket partially filled with gasoline was in the cab and a four-foot length of garden hose was in the bed of the truck, indicating gasoline had been siphoned from another vehicle.

Marjorie Reutebuch, 2262 Cleveland Blvd. later reported about six to eight gallons of gasoline had been siphoned from three autos behind her home after 10 p.m. Friday. Police searched the area where Ritchie's truck was abandoned and at 23rd Street and Cleveland Boulevard, they found a pickup truck which had been stolen from Paul Seebold Concrete Co., West 22nd Street and the railroad tracks, after 5 p.m. Friday.

At 3:15 a.m. Sunday, officers saw a truck with no headlights turn from the fenced M.H. Wolfe Co. lot, 2201 Adams St., onto 22nd St., where it went around the lower railroad crossing gates and stopped for a train.

As the squad car approached, the truck turned right between the sets of tracks and went about 50 yards north and into a ditch.

The young driver fled on foot north towards 25th Street. Other squad cars were summoned to help search for the youth, who was wearing a light blue shirt, and moments later an officer reported an eastbound Volkswagen had gone through the stop sign at 24th and Adams streets and was being chased on squad car. The 20-year-old was arrested in the car and matched the description of the youth which fled from the stolen truck beside the railroad tracks.

Officers also said the youth had cuts to his right hand and a bludgeon with blood on it was found in the auto.

Registering now for Red Cross courses

Mrs. Maxine Dunnivant, first-aid training officer for the Tri-City American Red Cross Chapter, today announced the start of registration for the fall series of training classes, offered without cost by the American Red Cross.

Courses to be made available to the public are: Standard multimedia (eight hours); standard first-aid and personal safety (14 hours); advanced first-aid and emergency care (40 hours); and cardio-pulmonary-resuscitation (CPR).

The latter course can require either eight or 12 hours of instruction, depending upon previous experience of the participant, Mrs. Dunnivant explained.

Individuals wishing to enroll in any of the four courses are being invited to call the Red Cross office, at 432-7184, between the hours of 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Additional information concerning specific requirements also may be obtained by contacting the Red Cross chapter representative at 432-7184.

Mrs. Dunnivant said those registering will be notified personally of the starting date and location of each class.

She emphasized that the instruction is offered without cost by the Red Cross. Only a minimal charge is made for the necessary textbooks, she added.

GC Democrats hear ERA pros and cons

The pros and cons of the Equal Rights Amendment were debated at the regular meeting of the Granite City Democratic Club in the Knights of Columbus hall last week.

Speaking for ERA was Mrs. Norma Mendoza, president of the Metro-East Chapter of the National Organization for Women (NOW).

Speaking against the ERA amendment was Mrs. Elaine

Mettendorf, president of the Stop ERA of Missouri.

Each speaker was allowed 20 minutes, then 30 minutes of questions from the audience, followed by a 15-minute period each for closing remarks.

At least 100 persons attended the meeting most of whom were not members but were there to support one side or the other, a member of the club said.

The two speakers remained after the meeting and while refreshments were being served talked informally to those in attendance.

Election of new officers of the organization will be held at the group's November meeting.

The following members were appointed to the nominating committee, Vasil Eftimov, Von Doe Cruise, Richard Allen, Miss Mary Perdue, Miss Elsie Mayhath and Alex Tott.

The Democrats are holding a fund-raising project for Christmas and are selling tickets for $1 each.

The next meeting will be on Wednesday, Oct. 12, at 7:30 p.m. in the Knights of Columbus building.

TRUCK, CAMPER TAKEN

The green 1973 Ranger half-ton pickup truck of William J. Moore, 2008 Richmond Ave., was stolen from his home between 7:30 a.m. and 4 p.m. Friday. The vehicle has a white fiberglass camper shell on the bed.

Charge driver

Richard Norton, 2160 Grand Ave., was charged with leaving the scene of an accident after his auto allegedly struck the parked car of Paul Dittamore, 2804 Wayne Ave., in the 2600 block of Washington Avenue at 9:40 p.m. Saturday.

Dittamore heard the crash and ran out to see the auto leaving the scene. Based upon a description given by Dittamore, officers stopped Norton's auto 10 minutes later. Paint on Dittamore's auto appeared to match damage to the front of Norton's auto, police said.

Norton was injured in the accident, but declined to be taken to the hospital.

Survey of manpower by college

Belleville Area College has begun a manpower survey of the 2,000 square miles served by the college for the purpose of compiling a job information bank of the area.

Businesses, industries, governmental and professional concerns are being surveyed to determine such things as minimum educational requirements, salary levels and projections for continuing employment needs, and anticipated new job openings in the future.

The first questionnaires have already been mailed, and follow-up calls are expected to begin this week.

More than 2,000 area employers are expected to be surveyed.

George Barry, who is directing the manpower survey, noted that it will eventually include the entire BAC District 522 and the Eastern portion of St. Louis.

Results of the study will be computerized and made available to students in high schools and others for career planning. Information gathered also will help update BAC occupational programs.

Barry believes the completed survey will be beneficial not

Now is the time to check your furnace and chimney

If you heat your home with natural gas, now is the time to check your furnace and chimney. It's worth a little effort to keep your heating system clean and the flue unblocked. You'll enjoy safe, trouble-free heating.

Here are a few checkpoints:

1. With a circulating warm air furnace, clean the heat exchanger and burners.

2. Clean or replace furnace filters frequently.

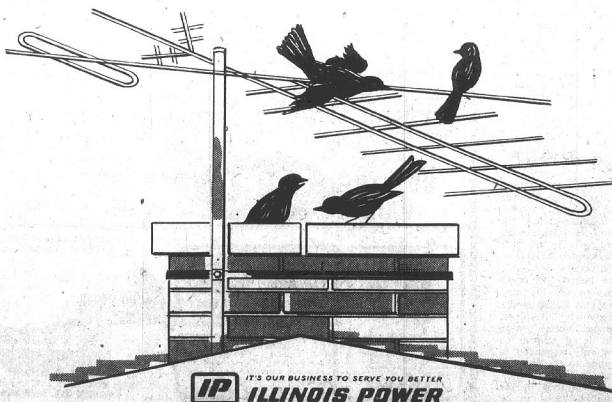

3. Clean lint regularly from hot water or steam radiators.

4. Flush the low water cut-off of a steam boiler once a week until water runs clear.

5. Clean lint and other debris from heat registers.

6. Blowers and blower motors should be cleaned and oiled sparingly at regular intervals. Make sure the blower belt is tight and not worn.

7. Make sure your chimney is free of debris. Check by placing a lighted match under the diverter, at the connection of the furnace exhaust pipe. If the flame goes out or downward, shut off the furnace until the chimney is cleaned.

Record '77 crop led by soybeans

The Crop Reporting Service said Friday that the Illinois All-Crop Production Index as of September is 130.3 of the 1957-59 base.

This is 10.6 points above the 1976 index and 1.1 points higher than the 1975 record high index.

Although 1977 production estimates for corn, wheat and oats are below 1976, these decreases are more than offset by higher estimates for barley and rye, and the record high estimate for soybeans.

Corn production for grain is forecast at 1,210,000 bushels.

The Sept. 1 forecast, up one per cent from last month, is three per cent below the 1976 production and four per cent below the record 1975 production.

Yield for this year's crop is estimated at 111 bushels per acre, compared with 107 bushels in 1976 and the record 118 bushels in 1975.

Acres for grain is estimated at 10,800,000 acres, compared with 11,680,000 acres last year.

The crop remained in mostly good condition through August.

As of Sept. 12, about 92 per cent of the crop was mature, compared with 82 per cent for last year and 69 per cent for the average by that date.

Some harvesting has been reported in a few areas, but little has taken place so far.

Soybean production is forecast at 327,500,000 bushels, up six per cent from the Aug. 1 forecast and 35 per cent greater than last year's production.

If realized, this would be a record high for Illinois, up almost 11 per cent from the previous record of 295,900,000 bushels set in 1975.

Yield for the 1977 crop, at 37 bushels per acre, beats the previous record 1975 yield of 36 bushels per acre. Last year's yield was 32 bushels per acre.

The 1977 acreage for beans is estimated at 8,850,000 acres, compared with 7,560,000 acres last year.

Crop conditions are generally good over most of the state. The above-normal August precipitation helped increase yield prospects since Aug. 1.

As of Sept. 12, about 77 per cent of the crop was turning yellow, slightly ahead of 73 per cent last year and 59 per cent for the Sept. 12 average.

About 40 per cent was shedding leaves, compared with 44 per cent last year and 33 per cent average.

New committee on intelligence

By ROBERT ESTILL
Press-Record
Washington Bureau
Stanford Turner, director of the Central Intelligence Agency, has a syndicated friend in Rep. Robert McClell, R-Lake Bluff, who could be a key ally for the federal intelligence gathering community.

He is one of 13 members named by House Speaker Thomas P. "Tip" O'Neill Jr., D-Mass., to the newly-formed House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence.

That committee — like its Senate counterpart that includes Adlai Stevenson among its members — will have broad involvement with the CIA, FBI and other federal agencies responsible for national security.

McClell will have a key role, he is the ranking Republican on the Legislative Subcommittee. In that role, he will have a significant voice on continuing legislation reorganizing and defining the limits of the powers of the intelligence agencies.

He is experienced in dealing with the CIA as a member of the temporary house committee which was assigned to investigate activities of the intelligence agencies.

The House, it will be remembered, voted to suppress the temporary committee's report on the grounds it contained classified information. The report became public when CBS newsmen Daniel Schorr obtained a copy from a leak and gave it to "The Village Voice" newspaper in New York.

McClell favors a tight-lipped, "needs-to-know-only" relationship with the CIA and thinks highly of its new director.

"Turner seems to me, so far, to be a very competent, intelligent individual, with a good background in intelligence work, who is going to take control and not be pushed around by anybody," said McClell.

McClell said he is certain Turner will be cooperative, but he also indicated he does not feel Congress should be involved in trying to "push around" the CIA.

He said he believes the "downfall" of the previous House committee on intelligence occurred because it was "interfering with ongoing operations."

The committee should not be trying to second-guess the intelligence agencies in the conduct of missions, McClell said.

"I think the primary responsibility for conducting intelligence rests with the executive branch," McClell said.

The committee should be posted on intelligence activities that "involve risks that could involve Congress in diplomatic activities," he added.

But generally he favors the intelligence agencies briefing Congress on a "need-to-know" basis.

Who determines that need?

"The CIA is going to have to be forthright, candid and open with the committee," said McClell. "If not, the CIA and the executive branch are going to have to be held accountable."

He is concerned that too many people already are in the act and is fearful the judiciary may enter the picture.

He is disturbed because classified information given to the committee also is available under House rules to other members of Congress. This virtually invites leaks, he said.

The Lake Bluff Republican also plans to oppose pending legislation — which will come before his subcommittee — requiring a court order for any electronic surveillance between foreign aliens and persons residing in the United States, even when national security is involved.

McClell, a lawyer and ranking Republican on the House Judiciary Committee, does not want to let the judges into the act.

"If there is a foreign spy in communication with someone, it is up to the President to take every possible action to investigate," McClell said.

"If he abuses his authority by listening to private conversations, then he should be taken to task." But the congressman said a judge should not have the power to prevent the government from "tapping" a foreign agent.

ANNOUNCING DEVELOPMENT of a 5,600-home city near Columbia, Ill., planned to start next year, is Gene Sternberg, local contractor (standing), a partner in the project. The $500 million to $750 million project is to be financed by West German investors. Gerwin K.

Rohrbach, the planner who has made the project his lifelong dream, is seated at the head table. A three-dimensional model was shown at Thursday's Granite City Optimist luncheon. Initial construction is to begin in March 1978. (Press-Record Photo)

GC contractor joins plan to build 'city on the bluffs'

By GARY SCHNEIDER
Press-Record Staff Writer
A Granite City contractor has become the partner of a planner in a $500 million to $750 million project to construct a full, pre-planned city of 15,000 persons on the bluffs between Columbia and Waterloo, Ill.

Gene Sternberg, president of G. H. Sternberg Construction Co., announced at Thursday's luncheon meeting of the Granite City Optimist Club that he is a partner with Gerwin K. Rohrbach, planner and developer in St. Louis, in construction of Chapel Spring, a 750-acre development which ultimately will contain 5,600 dwelling units, including houses, multiple dwelling units, high-rise apartment buildings, a shopping center, town center, schools, churches, ponds and parks.

The project, which is to be financed in its initial stage by West German funds, has been the full-time obsession of Rohrbach since 1971, when he sold his own consulting firm to devote all his time to planning the project.

Class sizes are limited. Mrs. Bonnie Little, coordinator of Conferences and Institutes, 692-2660, reported.

Rohrbach, who was introduced by Sternberg at the meeting, told the Optimists he plans to use the beauty of nature in every available way in constructing the project.

"We do not have to cut down one tree. Open fields now used for farming will be used for every building. God and the stubborn German farmers in Monroe County grew and developed what is the same as a $10 million park. It is there," Rohrbach said.

He said the woods which abound throughout the project will be left untouched and the 18 ponds already there will be supplemented with additional runoff ponds.

"It will be a planned development with trees, fish, wildlife, natural parks, vegetation. You could sell this as a classroom to study nature," Rohrbach stated.

Environmentally safe water and sewage systems will be installed and drainage will be handled by ponds which can be used for fishing and for beauty.

The location was chosen because it is within 20 minutes driving distance from downtown St. Louis. It is in the heart of the Southern Illinois coal reserves and it meets all of the other standards required for people to live in a comfortable environment, be close to work and be backed by a growing economy.

"This site is between where the St. Louis area economic base is now (in Missouri), and where it will be in 15 to 20 years (in Illinois). The area's resource base is not in Missouri, it is in Illinois and always has been," Rohrbach stated.

He said planning statistics now show about $4 billion to $5 billion worth of major projects are being planned for construction in the Illinois portion of the metropolitan area while "only pennies are being devoted to major projects in Missouri."

Rohrbach said options have been obtained on all of the land and noted once all of the plans were shown to the German farmers, they gave the options for very little money and have extended the options, when necessary, at no cost.

"I had to prove this was the type of project they would be proud of and they would be proud to have their grandsons come back and visit. Only after we proved that did we get down to talking about money."

"These are wonderful people, but they are fiercely loyal to their land, which has been handed down from generation to generation in the same families," he explained.

He said the first phase of construction will involve 202 apartments, a small shopping center, roads, and water and sewers. "We will build these for the European investors and they will then own the apartments, shopping center and part of the water and sewers. A tax agreement between Germany and the U.S. makes this arrangement beneficial to the German investor."

Whether European or domestic money will be used for the second phase of construction is not known. There are five phases of construction with single family dwellings, garden apartments and town homes in each phase.

Condominiums will be added starting in the second phase and mid-rise and mid-rise condominiums will be constructed with the other types of housing in the third, fourth and fifth phases of construction, Rohrbach said.

He noted foreign capital is the best way to finance the project, at this time, since domestic financing for major projects "hit disaster proportions in 1975 and experts estimate a recovery period of three years is the minimum. Our project is in perfect timing with the European economic market," he contended.

Rohrbach, who is a Fulbright scholar from New England, said this project has been his dream since he graduated from college and he studied many areas of the country before deciding on the St. Louis area for the one project he would make his life's work.

"My friends thought I was crazy, but I knew America would have to turn to her heartland for the future, not the coastal states, and I predicted energy shortages would make the coal fields of Southern Illinois the heartland of America, with the coal to run industry in the future."

Rohrbach also announced the project is 2.5 miles southwest of downtown Columbia; 15 miles from downtown St. Louis; 22 miles from Scott Air Force Base; 22 miles from Fairview Heights, and eight miles from South County Shopping Center. The project will be offered to institutional and private West German investors in mid-October and funds should be available by December. Construction of multi-family dwelling units should start by March 15, 1978, and commercial development construction is planned for June 1, 1978, he said.

A documentary film is to be made to aid in selling the project to the West Germans and to familiarize persons in this metropolitan area of the scope of the project and its benefits.

Copter, tank, chemical, artillery goals stressed

Percy Anthony Pierre, assistant secretary of the Army for research, development and acquisition, addressed a capacity crowd in the Breckenridge Hotel last week to aid the Army Aviation Research and Development Command's advanced planning briefing of industry.

The audience included more than 350 aerospace, electronics and armament systems industrial representatives. During two days of briefings, the Army presented its aviation technology plans for the next decade. The intent was to give firms an opportunity to restructure their research and development efforts in those areas where new opportunities will exist.

Dr. Pierre stressed increasing pressures on U.S. military services to regain leadership in certain key technology areas, such as heavy armed helicopters, chemical warfare, major caliber artillery and armored vehicles.

He said the defense budget cannot support the cost of achieving numerical equality with Soviet weapons. The emphasis must be placed on exploiting U.S. research and development capabilities and taking advantage of those available from North Atlantic Treaty Organization allies.

Dr. Pierre was appointed to his position as assistant Army secretary in June 1977 following a career in the engineering field.

A former dean of engineering at Howard University, research engineer with the Rand Corporation and a Sloan fellow and White House fellow, he is widely known for his contributions to the theory of electronics communications system.

Major General Story C. Stevens, commander of the U.S. Army Aviation Research and Development Command (AVRADCOM), was the host commander.

Sign language, other systems to be studied

Most people express themselves through both verbal and non-verbal means, according to Ann Carey, professor of speech pathology and audiology at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville. However, limitations of language comprehension and expression result when they have sensorial, psychological, or motor deficiencies, she notes.

A course dealing with alternate methods of communication will be offered at SIUE during the fall quarter for speech pathology and audiology majors and others with majors in related fields. Class sessions for the course, Alternative Methods of Communications (SPPA 400-1), will meet Wednesdays from 5 until 8:30 p.m.

Designed to present students with an overview of the non-speech approaches available and how they can best be used to benefit children and adults with serious communication problems, the course will cover manual systems and symbols as well as other approaches.

Manual systems and symbols to be examined will include the American sign language and various pedagogical sign systems such as manual English, signed English and Amerind. Amerind is based on the American Indian sign language.

Approaches to be explored during the coursework also include communication boards and other devices that utilize words, sentences, pictures and other symbols.

Information relating to the course may be obtained by contacting the SIUE department of speech pathology and audiology at 692-3662.

"It is impossible to exaggerate the significance of communication," Prof. Carey believes.

"It is the vehicle for social interaction and is essential for personal development."

The educator said it is vital to recognize that communication cannot take place within a single person; there must be a listener or reactor.

When communication aids or non-oral communication systems are developed, she said, it is important to do something about the environment in which the person lives if communication is to take place.

"When children and adults are so severely handicapped that they cannot talk, members of the community don't talk to them," Prof. Carey said.

"Therefore, they do not develop physically or personality-wise."

"We must recognize that the job of the speech and language CLINICIAN is much broader than just teaching an adult or child to talk," Miss Carey said. "It is to help the person communicate."

greeted by club officials. From left, are Vladimir and Agnes Fryntko, Jorge, Paul Sodko, chairman of the Granite City exchange student program, and Don Shaffner, president of the club.

Brazilian youth studying here

By MICK STRANGE

Press-Record Staff Writer
At 11:30 a.m. Tuesday, Aug. 16, Granite City Rotary Club President Donald Shaffner, Rotarian Paul Sodko, chairman of the Rotary Club's exchange student program, and Mr. and Mrs. Vladimir (Agnes) Fryntko met Jorge Luiz Ferreira Cardoso at Lambert Airport in St. Louis.

At that time, Jorge could speak no English. Today he is adjusting himself rapidly to American ways, including the language.

Jorge, 18, is from Belem Para, Brazil. He will be in Granite City for a year as part of a student exchange program. "Jorge could speak no English when we met him and none of us spoke Portuguese. We communicated through pantomime and Jorge used a Portuguese-English and an English-Portuguese dictionary," Shaffner said.

"Before coming to Granite City, we had lunch at the airport and it was very enjoyable, although we did get many people looking at us as we sat at lunch and carried on a conversation with Jorge."

Jorge currently is staying with the Fryntkos, although Shaffner said he would like other families in Granite City to host Jorge so that he learns more about the United States way of life, and so that others here learn more about South America.

Allen Kennerly, assistant principal at Granite City South High School said, "Jorge has been attending the Berlitz language school in Clayton every morning, where he is learning English. It is really amazing how fast the young man is learning our language."

"He attends South in the afternoons and in about a week he will be here full time, as he is about to finish in Berlitz. Jorge is very interested in electronics and attended a technical school in Brazil where I believe he studied electronics. The youth also has very good mathematical skills," Kennerly said.

"Jorge is not here to graduate, but really to learn the culture. We have him enrolled in senior level classes such as oral communications and when he becomes a full-time student he will be enrolled in cultural type courses and subjects of interest to him."

"When I received his grade transcript there was a minor problem. It was in Portuguese. Thanks to Murial Kratz, a Spanish teacher here, and John Sellmeyer, head of our language department who speaks Spanish fluently and some Portuguese, we worked out the transcript and they are helping Jorge."

One of Jorge's major interests is soccer and so far he has been accompanying the school's team to its games. Jorge is very sensitive to the needs of others. He said, "I hope to exchange knowledge and contribute to a better understanding of the world."

A local youth will be selected to go to South America in 1979 as part of the Rotary exchange program.

Business workshop

A workshop focusing on ways to increase understanding of problems in inter-personal relations will be held at SIUE Wednesday, Sept. 28, sponsored by business alumni in cooperation with the School of Business.

The session is scheduled from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the Mississippi Room of the University Center. Richard N. McKinney, associate professor of management, will lead the workshop, designed to enhance individuals' skills in improving inter-personal communications. McKinney, experienced in applying concepts and tools of personal growth to managerial development, says the workshop will place emphasis on the manner in which inter-personal understanding influences the way in which a person relates to other individuals. Participants will be provided opportunities to present problem situations. Fee for the one-day meeting is $25. Reservations can be secured by calling the SIUE Alumni Office, 692-2760, before Wednesday.

New recruiter aide

Private Dennis L. Boeser is another of a select group of enlisted men and women working for the Army on 30-day assignments as recruiter aides at local recruiting stations.

Pvt. Boeser of Trenton is assigned to the Army Recruiting Station, 1206 Niedringhaus Ave., Granite City. He assists Sergeant First Class Charles Reynolds, who originally signed him up, and the other recruiters at the station.

Pvt. Boeser's main duty as the recruiter aide is to serve as a liaison between the recruiters at the station and young people in the local area. He accomplishes this with visits to meeting places where he can mingle with the crowd and tell about his experiences, and trips to area high schools, including Highland High School, from which he graduated in 1977.

He left for basic training four months after he enlisted at the Granite City Army Station. He signed up under provisions of the delayed entry program, which allows a recruit to begin duty up to 12 months after enlisting, while receiving credit for time in service for assignment, rank and pay grade considerations from the original date of enlistment.

He undertook basic and advanced individual training at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo., where he was trained as a truck driver. After he completes his temporary duty at the Granite City Army Recruiting Station, he will be assigned as a truck driver in Germany.

The truck driving assignment was selected by him and was guaranteed to him in writing by the Army when he enlisted.

It was during his advanced individual training that Pvt. Boeser was selected for recruiter aide duty. Selection for the program is highly competitive.

He was nominated by his drill sergeant and approved by his first sergeant, by the commanding officer at Fort Leonard Wood, and by Sergeant First Class Tom Sparks, Granite City Army Recruiting Station commander.

"I wanted to travel, and to learn how to drive a truck," he explains. "I'll have the opportunity to travel all over Europe when I'm stationed in Germany. And I've just completed the best trucking course around."

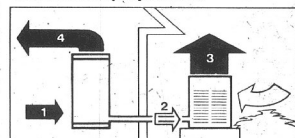

"I want to make the Army my career for 20 years, and then buy a truck and become a long-haul driver. Meanwhile, I'll be getting experience and doing what I enjoy best—driving."

Heat Pumps Can Help You Save Money

The Heat Pump Operation:

In summer...
1. Heat is absorbed from the circulating indoor air.
2. The heat-laden refrigerant from the indoor coil is pumped through the compressor and into the outdoor coil.
3. The heat absorbed from the indoor air is rejected to the outdoor air.
4. Cool, dehumidified air is circulated to every room.

In winter...
1. Heat is absorbed from cool outdoor air, even at below zero temperatures.
2. Heat absorbed by the refrigerant is pumped through the compressor to the indoor coil.
3. The indoor coil gives up its heat to the indoor air.
4. Warm air is circulated to every room.

The Heat Pump may be your answer to increased efficiency of heating and cooling your home as well as saving you money as you conserve energy.

Boys flee from scene of damage

Two Granite City boys, about 12 years old, were caught by officers Thursday after they ran along the railroad tracks from the Seebold Construction Co. on 22nd Street, where they had been observed breaking the windshield on a Mack tractor truck.

The juveniles were turned over to C. A. McMillan, Coordinator Youth Services officer. Paul Seebold informed police that several of his trucks had been damaged by vandals within the past few months.

Bicycle accidents on increase; more reflectors being required

(Illinois State Bar Association)

Bicycling seems to have become a popular sport for many Americans and, at the same time, bicycle accidents have become more common to many riders.

One tends to forget that bicyclists have "rules of the road" they must follow just as motor vehicle drivers must obey certain traffic laws.

Among the most important rules for two-wheelers are these:

Avoid busy streets or highways. Bicycles are not allowed on most expressways, toll roads or Interstate highways.

Dismount and walk across dangerous intersections or streets. Do not turn or cross unless it is safe.

Travel in single file when riding with others.

Never hitch onto a truck, car or moving vehicle.

Give pedestrians and vehicles the right-of-way.

Keep to the right and close to the curb or side of the road.

Learn and use the hand signals for turns and stops.

Keep brakes, light, reflectors, horn or bell, and other safety devices in good working condition.

Obey all traffic laws, signs and signals.

Avoid riding after dark, and then only if the bicycle has a headlight and red taillight or reflector. Every bicycle when in use at night must be equipped with a lamp on the front which

Sanitary board's local members may need to fight back

If litigation is to be used to endlessly delay the Quad-City area's takeover of majority control of the former East Side Levee and Sanitary District after 70 years of East St. Louis area dominance, local residents on the board should consider fighting back.

Considerable reverse pressure could be generated—against those suing to block the changeover—by acting to halt current plans to establish new Metro Sanitary District headquarters in the St. Clair County portion.

Robert Eastern Sr., whose term is ending in November, has gone to court in an effort to prevent Madison County Board Chairman Nelson Hagnauer from appointing his successor. It is being alleged that the law apportioning three of the five board seats to the county area with the most assessed valuation is unconstitutional.

It would be unfortunate if the change in the board majority is delayed, since the present direction being taken by the district is inappropriate in many ways and badly needs to be reformed. Only one example is the present pattern of needlessly frequent board meetings.

Whether new headquarters ought to be established at a vacant structure in the 6200 block of Forest Boulevard, Washington Park, is unknown. The district has been spending large sums in comparison to services rendered.

The 41,250-square-foot building would cost $150,000 and remodeling bids range from $73,440 to $86,808, while President Russell Robinson thinks the renovation could be done for about $50,000.

Unless St. Clair County interests back off from the attempt to block appointment of a third Quad-City to the board, perhaps there should be a full re-evaluation of this community's more or less high level of cooperation with the Sanitary District.

A proliferation of suits from the northern half against a wide range of district policies and actions might go a long way toward improving the overall performance.

Cost trend closing some schools; new Lutheran center

With the start of classes this month, this region welcomes a rarity—a new school. A Lutheran high school, temporarily based at St. Paul's Lutheran Church on Route 111 north of Route 143, Wood River, is expected to occupy a new building within two years, possibly in the Glen Carbon area.

Ninth graders make up the initial class and other classes will be added as the initial group advances. A varied curriculum is being offered, with emphasis on quality.

The decision to proceed with the Lutheran school is not entirely without precedent in this area of declining enrollment. The Madison school district is preparing to construct a middle school to serve sixth, seventh and eighth grade students.

But in many districts, the emphasis is on eliminating some school buildings as a cost reduction move.

While some Lutheran and Catholic families are willing to send youths a long way to school, the difficulty in cutting back on the number of public schools stems from citizens' desire to continue the neighborhood school concept.

Serious consideration will have to be given to some school closings in districts like Granite City, where economic realities are forcing a temporary resumption of deficit financing for the first time in many years. Balanced budgeting is the only sound approach for the long term, since borrowing must be repaid with interest.

Equal justice for deputies, others?

To the Editor:
A policeman has a sworn, sacred oath to the public.
A man who violates this trust by engaging in criminal activities is violating much more than laws, but it will be up to the courts to punish.
Mr. Throne has pledged vigorous prosecution of all criminals in Madison County.

When it comes time to prosecute any Madison County deputies, will we see two systems of justice again in Madison County, with the charges being dismissed or reduced to nothing for "old friends of the courts?"

Does an old friend of the court have two faces, as our courts do so often?
We are waiting to see if there is equal justice for all in Madison County.

Doctor combines skill, compassion

To the Editor:
Too many times we find an opportunity to say "Thank you," and all too often we fail to say it.
Recently we have had a clinic director, under fire by groups that don't see eye to eye with him on the subject of abortion.
But this is our right, as citizens of a wonderful country, to have freedom of choice and speech.
What I'd like to say is, "Thank You," to a doctor who has given me good medical care for 15 years and who helped deliver two of my children into the world. How many lives has he saved?
Wanted children, he has helped to live. And how many mothers' lives have been spared through his knowledge?

I know him to be a dedicated doctor and a compassionate human being. I know the death of a patient has grieved him deeply.
But even with good medical care, he cannot, nor can any doctor, guarantee the results.
I know that when I was in the hospital having one of my children, he was called by another doctor to check a patient who had been in labor an awfully long time. She was very ill and this was to be her fourth child.
The doctor had to deliver the baby by caesarian section and if he had not, very likely they would have lost both.

Surely there have been hundreds of other such cases, but how often do we hear the good, instead of the bad?
How many good young people do you hear of? Just the bad ones get recognized. But there are a lot of good ones.
I personally do not believe in abortion. But, again, we're all entitled to our beliefs.
All I know is that I'm glad there are dedicated, concerned doctors who are trying to give the community good health care.
Thank you, Dr. Zevallos, for 15 years of good medical care, and for caring.

$500 IN WALLET GONE
Elsie Taylor, 1112 Grand Ave., Madison, discovered at 3:10 p.m. Saturday that her wallet, containing $800 and a savings account book, had been taken from her purse. She believed the wallet was taken by a heavy-set woman, about 40 years old, who nudged her two or three times at the steak bar of Schermer Brothers' Market, 1213 Street and Madison Avenue, Madison. The money was mostly in $50 and $20 bills.

ANTIQUE COPPER TUB. Optimist Frank Rea cleans and polishes an antique copper tub which will be one of hundreds of items to be auctioned at the joint Granite City Rotary-Optimist Camelot Auction, Saturday, Oct. 1, at Sunset Hills Country Club, opening with a buffet dinner at 6:30 p.m. Items ranging from $5 and $10 to several hundred dollars will be auctioned in an effort to raise $10,000 for charity. Tickets are $12 each and being sold by members of the two clubs on a first-come, first-served basis.

SCOLIOSIS SCREENING is being conducted by the Granite City public schools to diagnose curvature of the spine early enough to get proper treatment. About seven to 10 of every 100 tested are found to have a problem which can be corrected before it becomes serious. Only about 2 per cent require treatment. All sixth-grade students will be examined this year. Shown is screening at Maryville School, the first to be tested.

A FESTIVE OCCASION. The festival featured food, games, dancing, live music, shows, and fire truck rides and other activities with persons from many heritages gathering to celebrate Mexico's 115th anniversary of independence.

Man is stabbed

Herbert Miller, 39, of 3084 Wayne Ave., was admitted to St. Elizabeth Hospital with a stab wound to the upper left portion of his abdomen sustained during a disturbance at his home at 2:50 a.m. Sunday.
Police found Miller sitting in his front yard bleeding. A Granite City ambulance was called and took him to the emergency room. He said he did not wish to press charges against the person who stabbed him.

Youth beaten and robbed

Bobby Smith, 18, of 2130 Delmar Ave., was injured when he was assaulted and robbed by three youths at 22nd Street and Delmar Avenue at 10:45 p.m. Friday.
Smith said the three approached and demanded money from him. He said he gave them $5, but two of the youths knocked him to the ground and punched his face and body repeatedly. They then left in a dark 1966 Pontiac two-door auto with a loud muffler exit on 22nd St.
Smith's father took him to St. Elizabeth Hospital where he was x-rayed for difficulty breathing and pain to his right hand and wrist. He was released after treatment.

Woman beaten, two sought

Two young men are being sought in connection with the beating at 7:15 p.m. Sunday of Debora Deik, 2558 Hemlock Ave., a waitress at Rico's II Lounge.
She said two young men at a barbecue offered her a ride to work and she accepted. On the way, an argument ensued and the men beat her, she alleged. She said they threw her out of the auto at the Clark service station on Nameoki Road, but then pulled her back into the auto and drove her to Rico's II where they threw her out and drove from the scene.

Nunes was indicted in connection with the fatal shooting of Edward Robertson, 19, of Granite City, last May 1 while Robertson allegedly was attempting to steal gasoline from a pickup truck.
